We look forward to Member Appreciation Events in the future!

CMCCU Habla Español

Eight employees have recently participated in an after-hours Spanish course in Sedalia. We would like everyone to feel welcome at our credit union, so if you feel more comfortable speaking in Spanish, we will try our best to accommodate! We've only just begun – classes will resume this fall.

We also have some of our brochures printed in Spanish. Please stop by to pick up information for yourself, or family and friends.

My Credit Union: It Belongs to Me!

More than 240 people attended CMCCU's Annual Meeting Wednesday, March 18 at the UCM Ballroom. Members and guests enjoyed dinner and brief presentations by Missouri Credit Union Association President Rosie Holub and State Representatives Denny Hoskins and Scott Largent. Carol White, CMCCU CEO, highlighted printed reports of our 2008 financial performance. During elections, Michael Ash was re-elected to the Board of Directors and two new volunteers (Phyllis Domann and Jim Hargrave) were elected. Sharon Gobber was also re-elected to the Supervisory Committee. While everyone walked away with a gift from CMCCU, several also walked away with cash!

Thank you to everyone who exercised their voting rights that evening and to those who filled out the membership survey. CMCCU is your credit union, and your opinion counts!

Do you know a Biz Kid?

Who better to teach kids about money than other motivated, entrepreneurial kids? That's who you and your kids will see on the PBS (Public Broadcasting System) show Biz Kid$. The show features young business owners, movie spoofs, and sketches to teach the value of financial responsibility. If you live in the UCM district, watch KMOS on Saturdays at 10 a.m. with the Biz Kid in your life! If you don't live in the UCM district, go to www.bizkids.com, and check program schedules in your area. Better financial education now will help your children experience better financial health later.

CMCCU In The Community

CMCCU Helps The USO

Central Missouri Community Credit Union collected money and non-perishable items for the USO of Missouri February 15 through April 30.

The credit union raised a total of $300 to purchase phone cards for soldiers overseas. This USO program, called Operation Phone Home®, gives prepaid, international phone cards to service members, especially those serving in Afghanistan, Iraq and other overseas locations.

We also collected non-perishables (toothpaste, shaving cream, lip balm, paperback books) that will be donated in addition to the phone cards.

Animal Shelters Helped

April through June, the credit union held bake sales, collected donations and even had a garage sale, with all the profits going to local animal shelters.

Show Kids You Care

Show your support to local youth organizations and children's charities this summer. The credit union will be participating in various activities and fundraisers, coming in July and August. Check our Web site for details, coming soon!

Saved By The Staff

Staff members at CMCCU can not only help you with your financial needs, some are now trained to help you in the case of a true emergency. Many staff members attended a CPR training course on May 6, and, though they don't want to have to use their new skills any time soon, they are ready to take great credit union service to new heights!

Walking...Walking...Walking

Your credit union employees and some members also formed teams that participated in the Pettis County Heart Walk and Relay for Life events in Carroll, Johnson, Ray and Pettis counties.

If you have questions, or want to help CMCCU serve our community, stop by your local branch office today and just ask! Remember: we are people helping people.

Youth Week Wrap-Up

Central Missouri Community Credit Union celebrated Youth Week in April with a bit of hocus pocus and an emphasis on savings.

The credit union is happy to announce that eight new accounts were opened during this celebration, and more than $77,500 in new youth (under 18) deposits were made! The magic didn't stop there. Members were treated to a magic show in the Warrensburg and Richmond lobbies on Friday, April 24.

Thank you to all who participated. Look for next year's celebration in April 2010.

Plan Now To Celebrate International Credit Union Day

Since 1948, International Credit Union Day (ICU Day) has been celebrated on the third Thursday of October. The day is set aside to reflect upon the credit union movement's history and to promote its achievements. It is a day to honor those who have dedicated their lives to the movement, recognize the hard work of those working in credit unions today and show appreciation to our members.

October 15, 2009

Join us Thursday, October 15, and celebrate this special day with us!

Mark your calendar and start your crafts now for the annual Children's Miracle Network supper/auction. This year it will be held Thursday, November 10 at the First United Methodist Church in Warrensburg.
